

Think NWMU secured raises for your peers? Think again.

Last summer, hospitalists at St. Vincent paid dues to NWMU to secure them a raise of 4.45% . . . exactly the same as their non-union peers at Providence Portland Medical Center, who got it without paying dues.

Ask yourself: is a union worth the price of admission?

Review the contract comparison here:

